

CPC20220 Certificate II in Construction Pathways

& Statement of Attainment towards CPC20120
Certificate II in Construction

With Mr Mole

Students have been learning about and developing skills in the following areas

- Preparing to work safely in the construction industry
- Use of carpentry tools and equipment
- Use of construction tools and equipment
- Handling carpentry materials
- Applying WHS requirements, policies, and procedures in the construction industry

Through theory sections delivered via the RTO's online learning platform 'Evidence Central' and practical experiences in the workshop.

Vocational Education – Construction, uses competency-based assessment so there are not traditional style assessment task set to a mark and students get to have several attempts if not deemed successful on the first attempt.

Students will be learning about and developing skills in the following areas in terms 2 & 3

- Undertake basic estimation and costing
- Carry out measurements and calculations
- Assemble components
- Manufacture and assemble joinery components
- Students will also undertake a 35-hour Work placement before the end of Term 3

