NATIONAL TECHNICAL SERVICES PERSONAL BEST SCHOLARSHIP

Award Conditions

The Award is made to a student who

Has demonstrated consistent ability, throughout the year, in working towards and achieving their personal best in two or more of the following areas of school – school work, homework, assignments, attitude, behaviour, extra-curricular activities, school service, other.

Conditions

1. The value of this Award is $300. Award funds are to be distributed as follows.
 - The Award is presented at the Term 4, end of year Presentation Night.
 - Funds will be released in Term 1 of the following year (after the award was presented), and only on receipt of an acknowledgement letter addressed to National Technical Services.
 - Funds are to be used within 3 academic years of receiving the award.
 - If there is a balance of monies at the end of the school year this amount will be carried forward into the following school year.
2. The value of the Award is to be best used for school related expenses.
3. Recipients are not able to use funds for refundable deposits.
4. Purchases made will be reimbursed, on receipt of an Approval Notice for Scholarship Funds (with original receipt/s attached) to the Senior Administration Manager, after authorization from the Principal. Each claim must be a minimum of $20.00.
5. The value of the National Technical Services Scholarship not used is retained by the school for redistribution, as necessary.
6. No part of the National Technical Services Scholarship may be taken as a cash settlement.
7. If a student should leave the school the value of the Scholarship not used is retained by the school for redistribution, as necessary.
8. Failure to continue satisfactory attendance and Award conditions may terminate the Award.
9. Annual correspondence for the life of the scholarship with National Technical Services is a mandatory condition attached to this Award.

This structure dictates that recipients need to plan well for payment of commitments such as Texts, Fees, Tuition, equipment related to subjects, computers and related resources, educational excursions and programs, and uniform (excluding shoes and bags). Decisions need to be made early on how to use scholarship funds.

Judges decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into.
