For Indigenous students seeking entry into UNSW in the areas of Education, Business, Law, Medicine or Social Work.

APPLICATIONS HAVE BEEN EXTENDED TO FRIDAY 17 OCTOBER for Education.

For more information email Nura Gili at asknuragili@unsw.edu.au or call 02 9385 3805.

Nura Gili, in conjunction with the School of Education at UNSW, has developed a preparatory program open to Indigenous students who are looking to explore and apply for entry into undergraduate degree programs offered at UNSW in Education.

Program Duration: The Pre-Program is held in Sydney at UNSW from 25 November to 18 December 2014.

Venue and Accommodation: The program will be held on the Kensington campus of UNSW and accommodation is provided for, on campus, in student college facilities.

Who Should apply? All Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people who are seeking to qualify for entry into Education at UNSW.

What does it lead to? Successful completion of the Pre-Education Program may lead to entry into an undergraduate Education program at UNSW or a pathways (enabling) program.

What is involved? The Pre-Education Program includes:

- an introduction to teaching
- academic literacy and classroom interaction
- how students learn
- the social context of schooling
- Indigenous perspectives in education

Cost: The program is free of charge.

How to Apply? Visit Nura Gili for application details.
